Description	FDDE was established in 2003 and is an association for professional private detectives and business investigators. The association currently counts 3 member agencies and 18 freelance agents spread across the country. Through our internal collaboration, we are able to offer most types of cases. The association FDDE aims to raise the standard in the industry by establishing ethical rules for detective and investigation activities. At the same time, the association works to improve detectives' working conditions both politically and practically.
