

I.K.D. Delegates reports

In Portugal, the activity of Private Detective, exists and is registered in the Portuguese C.A.E. (Classification of the Economy Activities) and in Daily of the Republic nº 91 of 18/04/95.

In this register it is written that detective private investigates elements related with people and good the order of customers:

Effectuate the appover of attached property,
it looks personnel of unknown paradeiro,
it makes the appover of usable tests in court,
nominated tests for ousting shares,
Investigates social relations,
nominated of it conjugates,
effectuate grafològique studies and makes commercial and particular inquiries.

What we do not have is a proper legislation that regulates the activity.

Por this reason and for this legal emptiness, wants to adjust the profession ace effective norms already in some countries of the European Community, defining deontological rules of professional formation, norms for the exercise of the private inquiry.

The detective is a reality inside of the enterprise and social structure, each more necessary time.
