With the foundation of the Bund Internationaler Detektive, e.V. in 1960 the groundwork for an effective and international cooperation of national and international detectives and observers, who...

The profession or with the general and particular duties of a detective builds the behaviour code towards colleagues and the association and it is count to be an observe rule of professional activity.

During the last 46 years of its existence the association grew to an effective and always computable organization, whose international qualified and international engaged members guarantee a fast and purposefull fulfilment of orders inthe fuil of privat - and economic determination worldwide.

State groups strengthened the intern network and they support the outside work towards governmental institutions and contact people.

CAUSED BY THE MERGER WITH THE DDV in 2002 the BID was able to improve its presence worldwide.

Annual general meetings and advanced training seminars for more than one day get the members from all different countries together on a regular basis and beside news regarding technical progresses and law the members have the opportunity to talk and discuss.

The high quality standarts of the members can be kept with the measures. Additionally, the affliliation feeling will be guaranteed and can be carried out as well.
